

Media and Politics in Transition

Cultural Identity in the Age of Globalization

Edited by Jan Servaes & Rico Lie
Catholic University of Brussels

The world of politics and mass communication has changed substantially over the past decades. Both separate and integrated developments have led to the present-day situation of turmoil.

This collection of 16 essays covers a wide range of theoretical, global, and regional perspectives. It presents some of the keynote papers presented at the International Conference 'Media & Politics', held in Brussels at the end of February 1997.
