Hi George,

Glad you liked the column -- I appreciated all your help.

I'll be pulling together a current list of some op-ed editors for free-lance pieces and will e-mail it to you when I get that together. About syndication, there are really only about a half-dozen syndicates that work with a lot of daily papers; it would be important for you to define the scope and focus of your column so that it could be pitched as unique and special. Anyway, let's be in touch on that...

best wishes,
Norman

Subject: Column ran in AZ Republic

Hi George,

I just heard that my column on TV ratings ran today in the Arizona Republic. (Unfortunately, I usually don't receive a clipping from that paper for a matter of weeks.) Also, it almost certainly ran Sunday in the Register-Guard in Eugene, Oregon. it would routinely be on CompuServe worldwide by now, posted under "Media Beat" under "syndicated columns" category. And it'll come off the press of "Liberal Opinion Week" in a few days...

best wishes,

Norman
