

To: koracn@EUnet.yu
From: George Gerbner <ggerbner@nimbus.temple.edu>
Subject: Re: long-delayed greetings
Cc:
Bcc:

X-Attachments:  Why CEM  CEM/don't miss

Hi. Pleased to hear from you and thanks for good words. Honored to be offered opportunity to serve on advisory board. Please send project draft when available, and tell me exactly what advisory board service entails. Attachments FYI. gg

Dear Professor Gerbner,

>
>although my visit to you on that sunny October afternoon >seems like yesterday, nearly two months have passed and it's >almost winter now. Meanwhile, I travelled some more, but also >found some time to work on drafting the next phase of "Do You >Speak Visual" project. Right now, the draft is being revised >by Richard Hendrick and Jan Hawkins, whose reactions I am >eagerly awaiting.

>
>Having known your work for so many years, meeting you and >talking with you was great honor and pleasure for me. Most >importantly, our conversation helped me focus on the issues >that will, hopefully, contribute to improving the next phase >of the project. I must add that what impressed me the most >about your work was its scholarly precision and clarity >combined with its deep and serious political implications.
>Living where I live right now only makes me understand those >implications better and appreciate them more. Last but not >least, I was most impressed by your biographical sketch in >The Atlantic Monthly - I just cannot help thinking it would >make a spectacular movie script!

>
>I hope that our new project draft will soon be ready to send >out to people we would like to become involved in it. If you >find it interesting enough and your time allows for it, Jan, >Richard and I have been thinking of asking you to be on the >Advisory Board. Do you think that would be possible?

>
>Once again, thank you so much for the interesting and useful >conversation we had. I hope we will stay in touch. Please >give my best to Mrs. Gerbner.

>
>Cordially,

>
>Nada Korac

>
>-----
>Name: Nada Korac
>E-mail: koracn@eunet.yu
>Date: 11/28/98
>Time: 4:54:43 PM

>
>This message was sent by Chameleon
>-----