

MARY LOU HUCHET
34 York Street
Lambertville, N. J.
08530

Home: 609-397-8638
Work: 609-683-4480

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1991 - Present Media Literacy Curriculum Specialist and Language Arts teacher at Princeton High School, Princeton, N.J.

Created and developed Media Literacy Program for all 9th grade students.

- Received approval from the Board of Education and the Language Arts Council.
- Conducted information presentations for Parent-Teacher Organization and teachers grades K-12.
- Provided in-service training for teachers on "Using the Media to Teach About the Media."
- Consulted with teachers from the science and social studies departments on ways to integrate critical media awareness within those disciplines.
- Organized and trained a group of 12th grade students who serve as volunteer Media Literacy Peer Leaders.

1986 - 1991 Developed and supervised Video Production Program in Princeton High School television studio. Taught scriptwriting and produced programs for schools and local cable television station.

1985 - 1978 Alternative High School teacher at Princeton; responsibilities included teaching and developing curriculum for students of varying ability levels: gifted, learning disabled, and disaffected.

1975 - 1978 Teacher-Coordinator Lawrence Alternative High School, Lawrenceville, N. J.; responsibilities included teacher supervision, teaching and curriculum development.

1974 - 1975 Neighborhood Youth Corps, Trenton State College; responsibilities included teaching academic and social skills to high school dropouts; developing jobs on campus.

PROFESSIONAL AWARDS AND APPOINTMENTS

Selected as one of 25 American teachers participating in American-Soviet Institute on Teaching, sponsored by USSR Ministry of Education and Educators for Social Responsibility, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Grant recipient from Princeton University and the Mellon Foundation to promote partnership among high schools in Princeton, Trenton, and Russia.

Selected as one of two American presenters at International Conference on High School of the Future, sponsored by the Association of Secondary Schools Curriculum and Development and held in Bonn, Germany.

Represented Princeton Regional Schools at planning conference on "The Future of Global Education in New Jersey," sponsored by the Eagleton Institute, Rutgers University.

Selected to represent Princeton High School and participate in planning national network for sharing information on exemplary educational programs.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

- 1991 Annenberg School for Communication, University of Pennsylvania, "Social Aspects of Mass Communication."
- 1990 New School for Social Research, "Video Production and Communication."
- 1989 Frederick Wiseman Seminars on Documentary Films, Albert Einstein Summer Institute.

- 1988 University of Massachusetts, "Cross-Cultural Communication."
- 1984 University of Pennsylvania, Graduate School of Education, Summer Writing Program.
- 1977 Trenton State College, Trenton, N. J., M.A. in Education.
- 1970 Rider College, Lawrenceville, N. J., B. A. in Journalism.