Dear Ms. Patterson:

I am writing on behalf of Martin A. Lee who has applied for a grant to investigate resurgent racism and neofascism in Europe. His past contributions and current writing, editing and publishing activities make him the best qualified person to carry out such research and writing.

The subject he is to tackle is one of the most crucial and explosive issues of the 1990s. The grant would make it possible to conclude his research in Europe. I recommend him highly.

Sincerely yours,
