

Date: Sun, 27 Dec 1998 14:10:10 -0500 (EST)
X-Sender: ggerbner@nimbus.temple.edu (Unverified)
Mime-Version: 1.0
To: "C.J. Hannon" <channon@ou.edu>
From: George Gerbner <ggerbner@nimbus.ocis.temple.edu>
Subject: Fwd: Re: Cultural Environment Movement Conference
Cc: cem@libertynet.org

>
>To: Peter <pwirth@ican.net>
>From: George Gerbner <ggerbner@nimbus.temple.edu>
>Subject: Re: Cultural Environment Movement Conference
>Cc:
>Bcc:
>X-Attachments:

>
>> I just heard the interview with you on NPR, was stimulated and >>provoked by what I heard, and would like to know more about the >>conference you mentioned. Do you have a mailing list we could be put >>onto? We are a professional theatre duo, based in Champaign-Urbana >>Illinois. We write and design original works, meticulously designed >>choreography of behavior, with several movement inventions we are >>temporarily obsessed with. I was active for years with something called >>the Alliance for Cultural Democracy, when I was part of the performing >>group called United Mime Workers. Then, I was with the Performers' >>Workshop Ensemble, and now the 'we' is a duo with Lisa Fay.

>>
>> I would like to keep in touch with the CEM and consider coming to >>the conference, at least to know what is currently the important >>discussion. Thanks for your voice on the radio, and thanks for reading >>this. I wish you well in your work.

>>
>> Lisa Fay
>> Jeff Glassman
>> 704 West Oregon Street
>> Urbana, Illinois 61801
>> (217) 344-2903
>> lfay@prairienet.org

>
>
>

George Gerbner
Bell Atlantic Professor of Telecommunication
Temple University, Philadelphia. Tel/fax 610 642 3061
E-mail: ggerbner@nimbus.temple.edu