- What recommendations might you offer to improve the application process?
- Reflecting upon our two-day orientation in September 1997, do you have suggestions for improvement? (Remember that the reports by the first class of fellows will make the September 1998 meeting different.)
- How would you characterize your relationship with the Fellow you have been mentoring? Sent video

MEMORANDUM

To: Advisory Board Members for Rosalynn Carter Mental Health Journalism Fellowships

From: John J. Gates, Ph.D.

Date: August 13, 1998

Subject: Preparing for the September meeting at The Carter Center

---

In preparation for the September meeting at The Carter Center, I would like to share with you some materials and information about the event. As you will see, we have had to incorporate even more activities into what was already a busy schedule. For this reason, we are trying to provide participants with as much background material ahead of time as possible.

Please find attached:

- 1) An agenda for the September 22-24, 1998 meeting at The Carter Center. Please note the following:
  - It is a tight agenda so we shall need to watch time allotments carefully.
  - We shall strive for a relaxed atmosphere with highly interactive discussions, where everyone is encouraged to participate throughout the activities.
  - Each of you will have 25 minutes this year for your comments and Q&A with the Fellows. With the addition of last year's Fellows' presentations, we are truly pressed for time. I have also asked two Advisory Board members to kick the event off by speaking the first night. Please feel free to repeat your comments from last year or change them as you see fit. I should mention that last year's Fellows were very complimentary about all your presentations.

- You will receive copies of project materials or status reports of the work of last year's Fellows about two weeks prior to the meeting.

2) 1998-99 Journalism Fellows - Advisory Board Members Match-Ups

This lists the 1998-99 Fellows with whom you are matched. You will recall that the two journalists on the Board, Loren Ghiglione and Bob Meyers, are available to all Fellows for consultation and assistance. Based on comments made by last year's Fellows and Advisory Board members, I urge you and your Fellow to take the opportunity at the September meeting to establish a regular schedule for talking with each other throughout the year.

3) Travel Arrangement Form

Please fill this out and return it to Lynne Randolph in our program office by no later than August 21. Lynne will be happy to assist you with travel arrangements and accommodations for your visit.

4) Bio-sketch and article on Jack Nelson

Mr. Nelson will be the speaker at the Inaugural Rosalynn Carter Journalism lecture on the night of September 23.

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding this communication. I look forward to seeing you at The Carter Center in September.

CARTER CENTER

September 4, 1998

Dear Reader:

This folder should be considered a preliminary representation of work completed by the five recipients of the 1997/98 Rosalynn Carter Fellowships for Mental Health Journalism. You will see from the enclosed materials that some of the fellows have finished their projects while others are continuing their work. The latter have submitted status reports.

The folder has been compiled in preparation for the meeting of the 1997/98 Fellows and the 1998/99 Fellows with the Fellowship Advisory Board and The Carter Center Mental Health Task Force in September, 1998. The materials are being distributed to attendees prior to the September meeting so that all might have a chance to read in advance of the meeting what has transpired to-date. Having done so, we shall be able to spend the limited time at the September meeting discussing some of the highlights, challenges and personal experiences of the fellows.

Since this is a working document, it is requested that you not disseminate this material any further at this time. We are discussing with The Carter Center librarian the best ways to archive final materials when those become available. At such time, they will be compiled into a final report which we will distribute to all relevant parties and archive at The Carter Center.

I hope that, after reading these materials, you will share my opinion that both the scope and quality of work achieved by the fellows has been extraordinary. There is every reason to believe that the work of the next class of fellows will be similarly successful.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Gerbner:

Thank you again for participating in our meeting for the Rosalynn Carter Fellows for Mental Health Journalism. Everyone's spirited contributions made it another highly enjoyable and productive event. President and Mrs. Carter and the Mental Health Task Force members were all very impressed with the quality of the program.

To continue to facilitate the collegial spirit so apparent during the meeting, we are enclosing a directory of all the participants in the Fellowship program thus far as well as a directory of the Mental Health Task Force members. We hope you will feel free to contact each other both when you need assistance and when you think you might be able to provide it.

In anticipation of our upcoming conference call, please consider what you thought went well during the meeting, what didn't go well, and how you think the meeting with the Fellows, as well as the Fellowship program itself, might be improved. Also, please feel free to contact me directly with any input you may have.

I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Please find enclosed the materials submitted by individuals seeking the Rosalynn Carter Fellowships for Mental Health Journalism to begin in September 1999. These 10 applications were determined by Mental Health Program staff to be the best from among the 37 applications submitted. Please note that Subrata De and Liisa Hyvarinen submitted videos for their work sample. We will forward these to you just as soon as the copies are made. We did not want to delay your review of the other application materials.

You will also find ten blank rating forms. Please use one form for each applicant and return your completed forms to me by mail or fax by Friday, June 25, 1999. We are in the fortunate position of having received significant additional funding to expand the fellowship program, so that this year we will use your evaluations to determine the top six applicants. If we experience some close calls, we shall organize a conference call to finalize the decision. Please remember that we stated in our advertisements and brochure that we would announce the winners by Friday, July 3, 1999.

If you have any concerns or questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Again thank you for your help and guidance in this process.

George
Dear Dr. Gerbner:

The Sixteenth Annual Rosalynn Carter Symposium on Mental Health Policy, chaired by former First Lady Rosalynn Carter, will be held on November 8 and 9, 2000 at The Carter Center, Atlanta, Georgia. The topic this year will be "Reducing Disparities: Racial, Ethnic, and Cultural Minorities and Mental Health." This topic was chosen by The Carter Center Mental Health Task Force to coincide with a supplemental report to be released in late summer entitled "Surgeon General's Report on Mental Health: Cultural, Race and Ethnicity."

As you know, our traditional audience for the Symposium includes the presidents and executive directors of virtually all the major national mental health organizations in the country, key government officials, and special guests of Mrs. Carter. As a leader within the mental health community, we hope you look forward to renewing acquaintances and making new ones among your peers and colleagues.

As in the past, registration will be from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 8, and the program will last from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. The traditional reception and dinner with Mrs. Carter will be held that evening at The Carter Center. On Thursday, November 9, the program will begin at 8:30 a.m. and conclude at 4:00 p.m. We are anticipating an informative, interactive program and look forward to your involvement.

If you are unable to attend, we welcome you to designate someone to represent you. There is no fee for the Symposium, however, invitees are responsible for their own transportation and accommodations. Information regarding arrangements is attached. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions. I look forward to seeing you in November.
