

Conversations at The Carter Center 1998-99

A series of programs highlighting the activities of The Carter Center

Kay Hinton

Events held at
The Carter Center
One Copenhill
453 Freedom Parkway
Atlanta, GA 30307
(404) 420-3804

Order Form

Tickets Per Program: $6 per person
$4 per Emory University student, faculty, or staff member
$4 per person for groups of 25 people or more

Number of Tickets: A Conversation with Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter
Spirituality and Social Change: Improving the Health of Communities
Crusaders for Peace: The Role of NGOs in the World Community
Breaking Through the Stigma: Portrayal of Mental Illness in the Media

Total Amount Enclosed:

Please send check or money order payable to The Carter Center to address on reverse side.
If available, tickets also may be purchased at the door on the night of the program.

.....
Cut Along Dotted Line
.....

Crusaders for Peace: The Role of NGOs in the World Community

Thursday, January 28, 1999
7:30-9 p.m.

What are NGOs anyway? Leaders of international service groups explain the exciting work of nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in the world today. Speakers include Peter Bell, CEO of CARE; James E. Ervin, first vice president of International Lions Clubs; and John Hardman, M.D., executive director of The Carter Center. Q&A follows presentation. ■

Breaking Through the Stigma: Portrayal of Mental Illness in the Media

Thursday, May 13, 1999
7:30-9 p.m.

Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter will participate in a discussion of the media's portrayal of mental illness. Panelists will address the stigma attached to mental illness and efforts being made to diminish negative perceptions from the media. Other speakers include John Gates, Ph.D., director of The Carter Center's Mental Health Program; Dan Rutz, senior medical correspondent for CNN; Andrew Skolnick, associate news editor of JAMA and '97-98 Rosalynn Carter Mental Health Journalism Fellow; and Otto Wahl, Ph.D., psychology professor at George Mason University and a member of the Fellowship Advisory Board of the Rosalynn Carter Fellowships for Mental Health Journalism. Q&A follows presentation. ■

A Conversation with Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter

Thursday, September 24, 1998
7:30-9 p.m.

Former President Jimmy Carter and Rosalynn Carter discuss their work at The Carter Center. Following the presentation, audience members are invited to ask questions. ■

Spirituality and Social Change: Improving the Health of Communities

Wednesday, October 28, 1998
7:30-9 p.m.

Can joining faith and public groups help develop health and unity in communities? A brief discussion of the success of such efforts. Speakers include Amir Al-Islam, secretary general of the World Conference on Religion and Peace in the United States; Paul Boumbulian, senior vice president of Parkland Health & Hospital System; Rev. Gary Gunderson, director of operations for the Interfaith Health Program at The Carter Center; and Kathleen Toomey, director of the Division of Public Health in the Georgia Department of Human Resources. Q&A follows presentation. ■

SOLD OUT

The Carter Center
Office of Public Information
One Copenhill
453 Freedom Parkway
Atlanta, GA 30307

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
Minneapolis, MN
Permit # 110

Name _____

Mailing Address _____

Daytime Phone Number _____
(In the event of a program change)

Please mail to:
The Carter Center
Volunteer Office
One Copenhill
453 Freedom Parkway
Atlanta, GA 30307

Please note:
 Tickets not claimed at Will Call
by 7:20 p.m. will be released.
 There will be no seating of patrons after 7:45 p.m.

