Re: My acceptance of your invitation to join the CEM Board of Directors

Dear George:

It was a great pleasure to meet and talk with you this past August 12. I fear the meeting went on too long and delayed your return to Pennsylvania and I apologize for having contributed significantly to that prolongation, but the conversation was simply too stimulating to end easily.

Thank you for your gracious invitation to join the CEM Board of Directors. Given what I know of the organization (which is, admittedly still little), it would be an honor to serve on the governing body of CEM. I am essentially basing my willingness on my conversation with you, my familiarity with some of your past work, and your awesome professional stature. Accordingly, I accept your invitation.

As a new board member, I would especially appreciate getting a list of and profiles of my fellow board members. I fear such a list will be rather intimidating, but still I look forward to being able to contribute in whatever way I can. I defer to your judgment that I do, indeed, have something valuable to contribute since I know so little of the organization.

I regret missing your convention in St. Louis. Aside from the exciting proceedings, it would have been an occasion for a homecoming for me. I attended my last years of elementary school and all of high school in St. Louis. I have a lot of family there.

I trust I will be hearing from you soon. Until then, with kind regards I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Roy Eugene Boggs, Jr.

I am pleased to confirm that the Board retreat will take place Nov. 16 and 17 at the beautiful Asilomar Conference Center in California. The retreat will start in the afternoon of Friday, Nov. 15 and conclude in the morning of Sunday, Nov. 17.

Asilomar can be reached via the airports of San Francisco (2 1/2 hrs), San Jose (3 hrs), and Monterey (5 miles). Further information on travel arrangements will be provided later. Those who can fund their own travel are urged to make arrangements immediately.

As you know, the Board has been reconstituted in order to bring in leadership representative of the diversity of the CEM coalition. This will be the first meeting of the new Board, and the first-ever Retreat that can engage in intensive strategic planning.

The generous contributions that make the retreat possible cover room and board but not all travel expenses. Please use institutional support if you can, use your frequent flyer miles, combine the trip with other business that pays part or all travel, drive if you are not too far, consent to double occupancy, and help support the event in any ways you can.

In order to confirm reservations and calculate costs, we need an immediate response from you to the following questions:

1. Can you attend the retreat? Yes
2. If yes, can you share room with one other Board member? Not
3. Can you cover the cost of transportation? Yes
4. If not, can you cover any part of the fare? _____
5. If the answer is yes, please indicate the amount so that we can allocate the funds as economically and equitably as possible $ _____

If we need to pay part or all of the fare, we will probably work the ticketing through our travel agent, unless you can combine trips and reduce the cost, or prefer to deal with your travel agent. Please comment:

Decisions must be made by October 15. Please respond by e-mail FGG@ASC.UPENN.EDU; Tel/fax/answ 610 642 3061 or 215 387 5202; or fax only 215 387 1560, whichever works best. More information will be sent as soon as we can collect it.
