Dear George,

I'm sorry for taking so long to get back to you, but I've been busy with many demands and at the same time trying to find funds to bring you out to GU. We are getting fairly close to raising sufficient expense money and thought I better see if you are still available. My notes indicate we settled on Saturday April 12th, 1997. Does this still work for you?

Please let me know and if so within the next week we should have a telephone conversation to speak about some of the particulars.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John Caputo

Dear John - I thought our arrangement was off. April 12 is still possible, though hemmed-in by other engagements. So I would need to know what the minimum necessary schedule of arrival and departure would be, and/or alternative dates. Also, in fairness to other engagements, honorarium is needed, as well as travel. George.

George,

I'll speak to others regarding some possible alternative dates. My experience travelling East coast West Coast would be you would need to arrive someime Friday April 11 to be here for the morning of the 12th. Additionally, East Coast flights generally leave in the morning, so your departure would be Sunday morning April 13th. We are working on your travel expenses and honorarium and should know within a week. I can say we are close. I am having lunch with Bill Niggemeyer today. He is part of the Franciscan-Ignatian spirituality group who originally contacted you. I'll ask him about other possible dates, but I know tis needs to be before the end of the semster which is the first week in May.

Thanks,
John Caputo

John -

I have just returned from speaking engagements in Los Angeles, will leave for same in Paris and Brussels next week, back home to teach my class and write a research report, and then off to Budapest for two days. Meanwhile Tuesday afternoons in my city office (215 387 5202) or my home number at night and weekends is the best way to reach me.

Saturday, April 12 is still on my schedule. If the engagement is late pm or evening, I could leave Saturday morning; otherwise Friday. Yes, return would have to be Sunday morning.

Please let me know where we stand.

Pete - FYI re speaking engagement at Gonzaga U in Spokane, April 12.
Please call and send what they need. I can speak on violence, diversity in media, or how media replaced the church as source of values, etc., perhaps "Telling All the Stories" as title. Not sure what kind of news release they want, perhaps you can find out and send. Call me at home Monday or office Tues pm if any questions. George.

Hello George,

I understand you were on the radio in Philadelphia today. Great.

I was wondering if you have any reprints of articles or interviews with you from recent popular press sources that we might photo copy for local distribution? If you could send anything along it will be most helpful.

Sent 3/20/97

Also, the department broadcasts out over a local TCI cabel channel. Would it be okay to tape your talk and cabelcast it after the event? OK

I am going to be sending you a copy of the tentaive program. Currently it is constructed into two sessions, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Each would be followed by two short responses and then group discussions.

Will write more later.

George,

In terms of accommodation we have two possibilities.

- 1) A very charming neighborhood B&B. 3 blocks from the University.
- 2.) A Marriott Courtyard, directly opposite the University across the Spokane river.

Just let us know which you would prefer.

In terms of your divided presentation on the Saturday, conference planners were interested in all the topics you have listed on the the upcoming speaking engagements you have scheduled and listed below. Perhaps the best way to think of the division would be the morning would be education centered . What is happening in media and culture, nationally and internationally. Perhaps show some of your Killing Screens video. The afternoon would be devoted to action-strategies for dealing with the media culture. Some questions that were bantered around were:

o How can parents, schools and churches regain an influence in telling their stories to children?

o How can media executives place responsibility above corporate profit?

o Where is the Church in all of this on a local, national and international mode?

o Is the CEM operating out of a similar mode to liberation theology?

Hopefully this will help.

Subject: Upcoming events in DC, Atlanta, Spokane, Lake Como, IT

For those in the area, George Gerbner will be speaking at the following events:

(MMTI), in Washington, D.C.

March 22, keynote at a conference on "The Church and Mass Media Communication in the 21st Century," sponsored by the Network for Religion, Media and Culture, Emory University, the Atlanta, GA.

April 12, keynote at Gonzaga University, Spokane, Wash.

April 21-25 "Communication and Social Change: Forging Strategies for a New Century," sponsored by the Rockefeller Foundation, at the Bellagio Conference Center, Lake Como, Italy.

John - I will be glad to write your dean but am totally backed-up with prior commitments, research deadlines, and teaching, and am about to leave for Italy for a week. So I must ask you to draft the letter yourself, e-mail it to me (will edit if needed) and will try to get to printing it out and mailing it on our stationery (would you prefer personal or CEM stationery?). Please let me know.
George.

Dear Dr. Gerbner,

Thank you very much for your kind letter. The conference was a great success and something we are very proud of, most of all because of your presence and the quality of your participation. It not only enriched us here, but allowed us to reach out to many segments of the local church and community.

I regret I was out of town this weekend because I know I missed a stimulating and enlightening talk and discussion on a subject of vital importance to our society.

Your talk was one of the highlights of the year here. We are grateful you were willing to come.

Sincerely
Michael McFadden ST
