Dear Mr. Gray,

Tom Pyle has already spoken to you about our desire to have you participate in the conference on science and the media which the Annenberg School will be holding on October 21-23. Dean George Gerbner will be directing the conference program, and will be in touch with you about the details of the program shortly after he returns from abroad later this month. In the meantime, in George's absence, I wanted to be reiterate the invitation Tom extended, and assure you of our hope that you will be available to join with us in this important endeavor..

I look forward to meeting you in October.

Sincerely,

Larry Gross
Professor of Communications
