HERE ARE SOME STORIES AND QUESTIONS. THERE ARE NO RIGHT AND WRONG ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS -- DIFFERENT PEOPLE HAVE DIFFERENT OPINIONS. YOU SHOULD JUST GIVE YOUR OWN IDEAS. NO ONE IN THIS SCHOOL WILL SEE ANY OF YOUR ANSWERS.

In Europe a woman was near death from a special kind of cancer. There was one drug that the doctors thought might save her. It was a form of radium that a druggist in the same town had recently discovered. The drug was expensive to make, but the druggist was charging ten times what the drug cost him to make. He paid $200 for the radium and charged $2,000 for a small dose of the drug. The sick woman's husband, Heinz, went to everyone he knew to borrow the money, but he could only get together about $1,000 which is half of what it cost. He told the druggist that his wife was dying, and asked him to sell it cheaper or let him pay later. But the druggist said, "No, I discovered the drug and I'm going to make money from it." So Heinz got desperate and broke into the man's store to steal the drug for his wife.

1. Should Heinz have done that? Was it actually wrong or right?

- No, it was wrong
- Yes, it was right

2. Is it the duty of a good husband to steal the drug for his wife if he can get it no other way?

- yes
- no

3. Did the druggist have the right to charge that much when there was no law actually setting a limit to the price?

- yes, he had the right
- no, he didn't have the right

Heinz broke in the store and stole the drug and gave it to his wife. He was caught and brought before the judge.

4. Should the judge send Heinz to jail for stealing, or should he let him go free?

- send him to jail for stealing
- let him go free

The drug didn't work, and there was no other treatment known to medicine which could save Heinz's wife, so the doctor knew that she had only about six months to live. She was in terrible pain, but she was so weak that a good dose of pain-killer like ether or morphine would make her die sooner. She was delirious and almost crazy with pain, and in her calm periods, she would ask the doctor to give her enough ether to kill her. She said she couldn't stand the pain and that she was going to die in a few months anyway.

5. Should the doctor do what she asks and give her the drug that will make her die?

- yes, he should give her the drug
- no, he shouldn't

6. When a pet animal is badly wounded and will die, it is killed to put it out of its pain. Does the same thing apply here?

yes

11

The doctor finally decided to kill the woman to put her out of her pain, so he did it without consulting the law. The police found out and the doctor was brought up on a charge of murder. The jury decided he had done it, so they found him guilty of murder even though they knew the woman had asked him.

7. What punishment should the judge give the doctor?

12-13

8. Would it be right or wrong to give the doctor the death sentence?

right to give the death sentence

wrong to give the death sentence

14

9. Do you believe that the death sentence should be given in some cases?

yes, in some cases

no, not in any cases

years, he escaped from the prison and went to live in another part of the country under a new name. He saved money and slowly built up a big factory. He gave his workers the highest wages and used most of his profits to build a hospital for work in curing cancer. Twenty years had passed when a tailor recognized the factory owner as being Heinz, the escaped convict whom the police had been looking for back in his home town.

10. Which would be right -- for the tailor to report Heinz to the police, or to keep quiet?

It would be right to report Heinz to the police

It would be right to keep quiet

11. Is it the duty of a good citizen to report Heinz?

yes

no

12. If Heinz was a good friend of the tailor, would that make a difference?

yes

no

While all this was happening, Heinz was in jail for breaking in and trying to steal the medicine. He had been sentenced for ten years. But after a couple of

13. Should Heinz be sent back to jail by the judge?

yes
