Dear Madeline:

I expect to arrive at the San Francisco airport from Los Angeles on USAIR #494 on Friday, June 2, at 7:20 p.m. From Wednesday night until Friday morning, I can be reached at the Loews Santa Monica Hotel (just in case...). Before that in my office or at home.

If it's no imposition, I'd be delighted to have dinner and a good talk Friday night. But I want you to know that my hosts (Center for Ecoliteracy in Berkeley) have offered to pick me up at the airport and drive me to Berkeley where they have a reception at Hillgass House ((2834 Hillgass Ave.) until 9 pm where I (or we) should put in an appearance.

So -- tell me what you prefer to do. Airport (more time to talk but more driving and hassle for you, though I can meet you at Arrivals so you don't have to park) or Hillgass House at the reception, or Durant Hotel where I am staying (2600 Durant Ave) after the reception?

This complicated scenario calls for some deliberation, so I will call you during the day or evening Wednesday (it is that here now), or if hard to reach, please call me at my home office anytime (610 642 7479).

I feel we have met but I look forward to seeing you soon.
