Dear Prof. Gerbner,

Just a note to confirm our phone conversations. We sill be pleased to have you come to St. Mary's to speak during our January Term. The theme of this Jan Term is "Rights, Responsibilities and the Common Good". Perhaps at a later date we can work our an appropriate title for your talk, though your research on TV and your involvement with the Cultural Environment Movement will surely be the subject.

We can offer you an honorarium of $1000, and we have been able to find transportation to and from Los Angeles that I hope will meet your needs. We have booked you on Southwest Airlines flight #1719 leaving Los Angeles International at 3 PM on Tues., Jan. 20, and arriving in Oakland at 4:10PM. Your return flight (Southwest #535) leaves on Wed. Jan 21 at 6:30 AM from Oakland and arrives at Los Angeles International at 7:45 AM.

Your talk will be scheduled in the evening, from 7:30 to c. 9:00, including time for questions and conversation with the audience, which will be primarily St. Mary's students and faculty, with some people coming from the Bay Area community. We hope to host a dinner for you at around 5:15 that evening before your talk, so that some of our faculty and students can meet you.

Please let me know if any of these arrangements, including most specifically the air travel reservations, are problematic in any way.

I look forward to meeting you again, and hearing your talk. Your last visit to St. Mary's was memorable and most enlightening for our students.

Sincerely,

Edward R. Biglin, Ph.D.
Director of the January Term
