Dear Dr. Gerbner:

I am pleased that my comments on the Wober article proved of interest to you and your associates. At your suggestion, I will get a letter off to POQ sometime this week.

I also thank you for your kind invitation to come for a visit. I regret, however, that in the near future I will not be able to accept. I am now in the final stages of rewriting and assembling my dissertation and the next several months will for me be a very busy time. Nevertheless, I am delighted that you might be interested in my work and would like to have your reactions to it. At present perhaps the best course of action is for me to finish and then simply send you a copy. After that perhaps a visit would be in order, and I know that I would enjoy one.

I look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,
