

CURRICULUM VITAE

Tel: (609) 497- 4780

Lyubov I. Dzekonova
345 Nassau St. #2
Princeton NJ, 08540

June 25, 1993

Education

1966/72 Graduate School of Journalism at Voronezh State University, Voronezh, Russia

1972 M.A. in Journalism from Voronezh State University, Voronezh, Russia

1972/75 B.B.A. in Special Courses in Art Theory and History and in Film&Theater Directorship from Moscow University of Culture, Russia

1984 Ph.D. in Mass Communications and Philology from Moscow State University, Russia

1980/84 Postgraduate Student , Department of Journalism, Moscow State University, Russia

1988/89 Visiting Scholar at Annenberg School of Communications at the University of Pennsylvania, USA

1989/93 Postdoctoral Fellow in Mass Communications at Moscow State University and Director of Marketing and Information Department , Sedoff & Sedoff Ltd., Russia

Academic Appointments

1985/89 Associate Professor, International Affairs, Mass Media, Department of Journalism, Voronezh State University, Russia

1979/85 Senior Lecturer, History of Mass Media, Department of Journalism, Voronezh State University, Russia
Lectured for foreign professionals, designed textbooks and manuals for use by African/Asian and Latinoamerican students interested in mass communications and politics

Accomplishments& activities

Seminars and symposia by leading experts in international journalism
Annual international and national conferences of the International Communication in Moscow, St-Petersburg, Alma-Ata
Seminars at Annenberg School of Communications (University of Pennsylvania),

East-West Center (Honolulu), Department of History
(University of Hawaii at Manoa), Department of Journalism (George Mason University, Fairfax, VA)
Maintaining good relationship with the professional and political communities at Moscow and Voronezh State Universities

Media Experience

1972/79

Reporter, TV-play writer and Film Director, Editor-
in-Chief of the Regional TV and Radio
Broadcasting Network, Voronezh,
Russia. Awarded four times from the National
Festivals of TV program

1991/92

Director of International & Public Relations
Department of the International Film Festivals
Association "Women's World", Moscow & Samara,
Russia

1992/93

Managing Editor and Director of Information &
Research Service of non-governmental private weekly "RED - Russian Economic Digest"
(English) for the international audience, Moscow,
Russia

Languages

Russian (native), English(oral and written),
French (written), Italian(written)

Permanent
Address

Department of Journalism
Moscow State University
Moscow , K-9 Russia 103009
20 Mokhovaya St.
Tel.203-66-41

Personal

Born March 10, 1947 in Chertkovo,
Rostov region, Russia, citizen of Russia.
Married, excellent health.

REFERENCES AND FURTHER DATA ON REQUEST

LIST OF PRINCIPAL PUBLICATIONS

1. Development of mass media system in western Africa. The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1982, No.6.
2. An apology of information imperialism in Africa. The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1983, No.1.
3. Information imperialism and the building of the new international information order. Moscow, University Press Publ., 1983.
4. A history of developing countries' mass media system. A textbook for journalism education. Voronezh, University Press Publ., 1987.
5. How the information imperialism is exported? The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1987, No.4.
6. Humdrum and festal life of Zambian Press. The Herald of Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1988, No. 5.
7. The utilization of multinational Soviet Journalism experience in developing world. In: "The history of creation of multinational Soviet journalism". Kazakh University Press Publ., Alma Ata, 1988.
8. The coverage of world events by African mass media in 1988: A study of news practices and values. The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, 1989, No.1.
9. "Glasnost": How the Soviet mass media handle perestroika? An interview for KOHO broadcasting station, Honolulu, Hawaii, USA, 1989, May.
10. The intercultural communications in the era of Glasnost: How the Soviet perestroika's experience is reflected on the world mass media? In: An historical experience and the problems of perestroika. Kazakh University Press Publ., Alma Ata, 1990.
11. North-South dialogue: Are U.S. and USSR "the prisoners of images" in their new Third World policies? The paper intended for "Consensus Project" at John M.Olin Institute for Strategic Studies at Cambridge, MA. Unpublished. 1991.
12. To reckon with the past or to score up against the present? Transnational media and the Third World development. The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1991, No.2.
13. African media system today. A reference book. In print. Moscow, "Nauka", 1993.
14. Black and White news: Africa's media images. The Herald of the Moscow University, serial 10, Journalism, 1993, No.2.

LIST OF COURSES

International Communications.

Communication, Development, and the Third World
History of the Third World's Mass Media
Communication and International Political Process
Communication in Political, Social, and Economic Development
Global Media and International Relations
International and Comparative Communication Policies

Mass Communication in Russia.

Social History of Communications in Russia : From Ivan the Terrible to Yeltsin
The New Russian Journalism as a Developing System
Mass Media in Russia : Political, Cultural, and Historical Contexts
Press as Phenomenon of Political Culture in the modern Russia
Mass Media Inside Post-Communist Russian System
Communications and Political Changes in Russia
The Ministry of Truth: Radio and TV in the Former USSR
The Stereotypes in the Modern Russian Journalism and Public Opinion
The Alternative Media in Soviet Union : From Lenin to Yeltsin
Women in Russian Mass Media, Art and Society