Dear John: I

I am enclosing the material received from the World Media Association that we talked about on the phone. We are delighted with the prospect of your writing a review essay based on these materials. This will be a significant service to the field, and we look forward to receiving your manuscript by the end of 1986.

Please call me or Marsha if you have any questions as you proceed with this work.

I look forward to seeing you in New Delhi.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

George Gerbner

Dear George:

I just received the latest JOC. All I can say is thank God, we had Serge Gerbner and Marsha Siefert as editors for all those years. If the current crew wanted to make the journal into an unreadable, irrelevant publication, they have succeeded. I will cherish the issues that began in 1974 and ran through the 70s and most of the 80s.

The Different Road Taken ms. is shaping up. Everything is in except chapters by Annabelle & Janet. Due in weeks or so. I will send transcript of your interview as soon as it is finished. Should be ready in two weeks.

All the best.

John

George —

Here is the transcript. *

It is not paragraphed, nor edited.

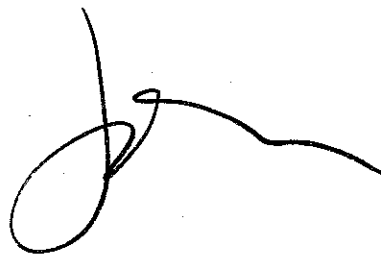

I just put a few question marks here and there to draw your attention to sentences or paragraphs that need clarification.

You are welcomed to edit this -- especially for clarification, but in some cases, for style. Please give me your editing or reaction within two weeks.

I have not heard the entire tape(s) yet. The transcriptions were done by a professional transcriptionist who works in the medical field.

A fascinating story. I hope someday to read the entire story, in an autobiography or memoirs.

All the best,

Five pages
to be transcribed
yet.

Dear George—

Enclosed find the last few pages of transcript of your interview. I have not had a chance to look these over.

If you have any reactions, please give them to me before May 31. I will be in Asia most of July and August, and I want to finish the book before leaving.

All the best.

Dear George:

Thank you for your promptness in editing the manuscript. I quickly scanned it and I do not think I have any questions or objections to what you did. If I do, I will write.

All the best to you. I appreciate your help concerning this book.

Sincerely,

John A. Lent
